

Describe all the obligations the company has, both financially and legally. On what document they are based, how they are implemented according to the requirements and how much time and money is needed for their full implementation.