

Tell us about the safety of doing business in the region and the Republic. For example: the presence of professional workers in the region, the stability of taxation, the openness of government bodies, the availability of service providers, the possibility of supplying equipment and materials from abroad, what local production of equipment and materials is available in the Republic and what quality it is, and so on.